Conservative Meeting, -A mass meeting of the Conservative party of the city and county will be held at Liberty Hall, to-night, at which addresses will, it is expected, be delivered by Lt. Gov. Marye, ex-Gov. Wm. Smith, Judge Thomas, Senator Taylor, and others .-A large turn out is expected.

FIRST WARD RADICALS .-- A meeting of the Radicals of the First Ward was held last night in the colored school house, near the Bridge pump. There were but nineteen present in all, only one-half of whom resided in the First Ward. At about nine o'clock, the President, Geo. L. Seaton, arrived and called those present to order, saying the meeting had been called for the purpose of appointing a committee whose duty it should be to see that every Republican of the ward voted.

The following were then elected members of said committee: Wm. Edwards, Thos. Tansley, John Birrell, Moses Kipp, Chas. Whittlesey. L. I. O'Neal, Edward Evans, Geo. C. Hewes, I. C. O'Neal, Thos. Davy, Eli Smith, Wm. Credit, Robt. Jenkins, Frank Chase, E. H. Delehay, Wm. R. Howard, and Thomas

Calls were made for Richard Miles, who straightened up, and asked to be excused, but at the same time showed himself to be anxious to say something. He was proud of the honor which had been thrust upon him-to speak before that august assemblage. One serious objection on his part to public speaking was that his remarks were invariably misrepresented; everybody knew he was no orator, but he never used "dis," "dat," &c. He said he was not prepared to make a speech, but would have one ready for to-night, which he would deliver in the Second Ward, and invited all to come and hear him. He was confident of the success of the Republican party, said you must fight the devil with fire, &c. The speaker hoped he was not worrying any one, as some were leaving the room. He concluded by saying the country had been drenched in blood to secure freedom to the colored race, &c., &c. John A. Seaton was then called for, who said he was also unprepared to make any remarks, as Miles in his speech had covered all the ground. He said he endorsed the platform of election, to hear the gratifying intelligence of a Republican victory. Some called for Joseph Colton. He said he was no speaker, but would give some whole-some advice, viz: Let every one suppose the entire success of the Republican party depended upon his individual shoulders. He was confident that there would be a victory which would make some of the "old rebels" tremble. The chairman endorsed Colton's advice, and the Reform party heartily, and hoped he would urgedunity in the party.

J. A. Seaton said the City Council had appointed a committee to wait upon Gen. Howard to request that official to turn the colored school houses over to the city of Alexandria, which was a drift to deprive colored children of education. In his opinion the constitution of the State never intended to deprive children of education because their parents didn't pay taxes, as that was not the fault of the children. Ex-Gov. Wm. Smith had said "it would never do to educate the poor white children of the State," (!!!) because he knew there would be genius spring up from that class some day or other which the aristocracy of the State would have to make place for. They were trying to carry that policy out in Alexandria. In the Board of Aldermen, of which body he had the honor of being a member, a bill had been presented granting the right of way through the city to the Alexandria Passenger Railway Company, and that he offered an amendent that no one should be excluded from the cars on account of color. The members of that board were liberal men and accepted his amendment without a dissenting voice; but it had been lost in the Common Council, by a colored man speaking against it. This colored member could ride in the "Jim Crow" car if he felt so disposed, but if the speaker paid his full fare he wanted to ride where every one else did. Such colored men should be kept at home. The Charman explained in regard to the colored school houses. They did not belong to Gen. Howard, as the Government had given then to the colored people. The meeting then adjourned.

with a coal vessel bound out, off Hollland point yesterday evening, but neither vessel was much hurt. The steamer lost some of her cargo of barrels.

Corporation License Tax.—A case involving the constitutionality of the Corporation license tax came up before Judge E. M. Lowe, of the Corporation Court, at chambers yesterday upon a motion to dissolve an injunction restraining the Mayor for collecting the license upon express companies, hucksters and butchers. It was ably argued by F. L. Smith, jr., Corporation Attorney for the Corporation, and by Brent & Wattles for the plaintiff. The decision will be rendered at the next term of the

Kane, of Harper's Ferry, officiated at 7 o'clock and Rev. Basil Paccarini, of Charles county, Md., at 11 | you will find a. m. preaching a short but very eloquent sermon. The Rt. Rev. Dr. McGill, Bishop of Richmond, who was on a brief visit to Alexandria, officiated in the Chapel of the Holy Cross, at St. Mary's Academny. Appropriate services were also held in the Episcopal churches. To-morrow is All Soul's Day, commemorated in the Catholic Church. Services will be held in St. Mary's church at 7 and 9 a. m., and should the weather be fair many persons will visit the cemeteries and strew the graves of their friends with flowers.

THE NEW MARKET HOUSE STEEPLE. -At a meeting of the committees of the different wards, who have had the matter in charge, held at the Gazette office this morning, it was determined that the chairman of each committee prepare a correct copy of the list of subscribers to the Market House steeple in his ward, to be handed, as soon as possible, to Geo. Bryan, esq., chairman of the general committee, at his office, under the Manson House, and that if it should appear that there is a de ficiency, a proper appeal be made to the citizens to subscribe the requisite sum ($5,000) in order that the steeple, with a clock and bell, may be creeted as soon as the Market House building is sufficiently completed to allow of its being put up.

TAKING A MAN AT HIS WORD .- An uninterested party having yesterday told some boys who asked him if they might have some of the charred planks at the burnt building, corner of Washington and Duke streets, that as far as he was concerned they might have the whole of it, took him at his word, and were soon engaged with carts in carying it off for fuel, and but for the interference of the police would have removed the entire debris.

From New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.-James Fisk, Jr., was formally, arrested last evening on the suit of Josephine Mansfied on a civil action to recover $50,000 of Mansfield's which Fisk used but failed to account for. He gave bail in $35,000. A letter from Mansfield to Fisk upbraids him for perfidy to her and says it is a shame to compel her who grew up with him from nothing to the now great Erie impressario to vindicate herself in court. She refers to his scheme revealed to her four years ago of stealing the Eric books, of staying with him in Jersey City, and how when he was buying the New York Legislature he said it would result in either a Fisk palace in New York or a stone palace at Sing Sing. He requested her if it was the latter to take a cottage outside the prison. She is willing to have affairs arbitrated by Wm. M. Evarts, but says if his power over the courts is still supreme and Tammany is still able to protect him the reward may still

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Sinking Fast.-Pale, miserable, discouraged, without relish for food, without energy enough for exertion, yet with no acute pain, or other specific indication of disease, how often do we see feeble invalids fading as it were out of life without any apparent cause. We say of them that they are "sinking fast," or "sinking gradually," as the case may be. But there is no good reason why they should sink at all. Persons in this dead alive state simply want invigorating and vitalizing. Nature, in a state of torpor, demands help. Bring out the reserve of vitality in the system; brace the nerves; tone the stomach, break the morbid trance of body and mind with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It can be done. It has been done in thousands of instances. The effect upon the enervated frame is electric. Never give up, however languid and broken down. Remember that for the exhausted, the debilitated, the desponding, this powerful vegetable restorative is a genuine clixir. It is not a mere stimulant that provokes a transient flash of vigor in the system, and then leaves it in more depressed condition than before. It removes the causes of debility by altering the secretions, and regulating the action of the internal organs, as well as re-enforcing them. It is a particularly valuable medicine at this season, because it is an antidote to the malaria which produces intermittent fever, bilious colic and other disorders of the bowels prevalent in the oct 30-eolw

El Vino Catalina .- The announcement that has been so generally heralded throughout the country that an American company has again commenced importing this celebrated Wine Tonic is a matter of no small importance, and will be bailed with joy by all those seeking a pure and invigorating tonic; also, those who need a pure, pleasant and refreshing stimulant will find in the El Vino Catalina, or Brown's Catalina Wine Tonic, what they want It will be remembered that importations were made in 1866 of this noted brand, but in consequence of the high duty then demanded by this government, the enterprise ceased, to the regret of thousands who had learned its value. It is the oldest tonic in the world, and doubtless the most invigorating, the purest and best, and if importation continues at the rates now started, it will take its place in every family in this as well as in the old countries. Its merits will make it a household article, and we hope that every one who has ever used any Bitters or common patent tonic, will at least try one bottle of the Catalina, and then decide for themselves whether they will use this Tonic, prepared from the pure juice of the Catalina grape, with Calisaya and the spices of Ceylon, or a bitters made of common whiskey and bitter field herbs. This is an invaluable preparation for weakness and debility; it relieves morning languor and gives freshness and appetite, not followed by an unpleasant reaction. It cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Costiveness, It cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Costiveness, Bilious Derangements, Cramp Colic, Flatulence, Diarrhea, Dysentery Nausca, Vomiting, Morning Sickness, Chills and Fevers, Headache, Nervous Irritability, Amemia, Heart Disease, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Diseases of the Skin, and all Eruptions, either caused by other diseases or impurity of the blood. As a Tonic in Consumption, it has no superior, of which thousands believe themselves to have been cured by its use. We do not claim that it will cure Consumption, but we are sure that it will cure Consumption, but we are sure that it will prevent it if taken freely in time.
